

The Master Teacher should know where to go to:

- ☐ Obtain driver's licenses, parking permits, and Rules of the Road instruction booklets.
- ☐ Participate in driver and bike safety programs and alternative defensive driving courses; learn about traffic violations, ticket costs, and payment processes.
- ☐ Obtain bicycle, pet, or business licenses; pay utility bills.
- ☐ Obtain free notary services and locate post offices.
- ☐ File police reports; learn about crime prevention programs, home safety, police youth outreach, and vacation-watch availability.
- ☐ Learn the city regulations including those for keeping animals, using cell phones while driving, burning brush, collecting leaves, and sprinkling lawns.
- ☐ Obtain schedules for garbage collection and street sweeping; learn the local parking rules.
- ☐ Learn about disaster planning and fire protection.
- ☐ Find out what social agencies are available in the municipality, what problems they address, and how to report those problems and access services.
