

Discussing Marriages

At the interview, you will have to talk about your current marriage and also about any prior marriages. You will also have to talk about how each marriage ended. There are three choices on the N-400. Take a look at the question below that appears in Part 8 F and G:

2. Prior Spouse's Immigration Status <input type="checkbox"/> U.S. Citizen <input type="checkbox"/> Lawful Permanent Resident <input type="checkbox"/> Other _____	3. Date of Marriage (mm/dd/yyyy) <input type="text"/>	4. Date Marriage Ended (mm/dd/yyyy) <input type="text"/>
5. How Marriage Ended <input type="checkbox"/> Divorce <input type="checkbox"/> Spouse Died <input type="checkbox"/> Other _____

Here is what each choice means:

Divorce: Magda and Adam got divorced. They were fighting too often. They decided that they were no longer happy living together. They legally ended their marriage.

Who else got divorced?

- ☐ Magda and James
- ☐ James and Tammy

Magda Novak	Adam Novak
Married: September 21, 1996 Divorced: March 6, 2001

Spouse Died: Sometimes a marriage ends when the husband or wife dies.

Other: If you have a prior marriage and a different reason why your marriage ended, you will have to explain what happened to the USCIS Official at your interview.
