

Applying

To reach the third level of critical thought, Applying, English language learners take the pieces of what they are studying and combine them in a coherent whole by organizing, modifying, transforming, comparing and contrasting. Student activities that support application of EL/Civics knowledge are:

- Using the information gathered to create a chart or a table
- Sorting and categorizing the information
- Sketching the situation described
- Comparing separate events, people, or situations